THE LEARNED ASTRONOMER
Who in the quiet of the morn,
And wandered through this pleasant land.

We countenance upturned,
From early youth his habits were
To hold aloof from me;
He thought this old world's happenings—
But little worth his ken.

He saw no wonders in the trees
In the waving grass—
To wo a pretty lass;

And not a whit this good man cared
To think the greatest man was he
Who made the telescope.

But sun and moon arose and set
Precisely when he said they did;
He saw no comet come and go;
And where each comet feed;
And for his pipe to wane the spots
Among the brethren of his ilk
Had much renown had won.

This good soul died and went on high,
To his to concours.
He found the knowledge gleamed while here
Left nothing to come.

With a nod from o'er a cloud,
He now peers down to earth,
And finds out strange and wondrous things.

About his place of birth—
Baltimore Sun.

Stop that cough by using Ray's
Cough Syrup; it's guaranteed.

Barlow's Minstrels is booked at the Opera-house Monday, March 14th.

strelsy have been introduced in the strongest combinations of its kind traveling. Songs, music, operatic selections, costumes and other things are all up to the times.

According to a late census bulletin, which the body will be laid to rest in rest in Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati.

THE lengthiest "leaders" on most of the Democratic editorial pages hereabouts just now are the lists of candidates for office.

THE San Francisco Chronicle remarks that, as a sign of the times in passing, no babies are now being named after WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN.

"It never rains but it pours," says the ancient saw. In addition to his appointment as Private Secretary to Congressman KERHOP, Editor ALLEN has his Cynthia Democrat bulging with hundreds of lines of political advertising at so much per. At his present gait Jim will soon be a millionaire; then he'll be buying diamond gifts for some sweet girl and building a castle on a corner lot in Elysiumville.

THE Cynthiana Democrat says Col. JOHN G. CRADOCK slipped on an icy pavement at Paris, while he was flirting with some ladies on the way to the opera, and "painfully sprained his left wrist at the elbow." That accounts for it. We always knew that, somehow or another, CRADOCK was the one and onlyest when it narrowed down to the matter of taking care of a free lunch. It's plain enough now—he has elbows in his wrists.

THERE is talk of a movement to consolidate two or three of the so-called Republican papers of Louisville, making a first-class, sure-enough Republican daily, with a man of ability and integrity as Editor.

—Many years ago, so the story runs, a Methodist Circuit Rider was journeying through Lewis County. Night came on; his horse was tired and the rider hungry. He reached a lonely cabin and sought food and shelter, which were gladly granted. The evening wore on, and when bedtime arrived the good man suggested that it was his desire to have the family join him in prayer before retiring.

"Yes, yes; that's a damned good idea," exclaimed the host, meaning to be positive rather than profane.

One of the beauties of Kentucky's taxing system is shown in a dispatch from Frankfort which says the State Board of Assessment and Valuation is deadlocked over the proposition of the valuations of the corporate franchises of private corporations for the purposes of state taxation.

The Board is composed of three members, Secretary of State HILL, Auditor CULTER and Treasurer HAGGARD, and notwithstanding they have held numerous meetings and endeavored to agree upon valuations, they have failed to agree as to a method of arriving at them or the amount in the aggregate.

Secretary of State HILL, it is asserted, favors going to the limit, while Auditor CULTER and Treasurer HAGGARD, disagreeing with him, are each in a class to themselves and there is little prospect of an early agreement.

In the 107 years from the organization of the Government to the first inauguration of President McKinley exports had only exceeded imports by the sum of $88,028,497, while in the four years since his first inauguration exports have exceeded imports by $2,150,000,000. And yet the Free-traders told you that a Protective Tariff would prevent the farmers and factors of the United States from selling their products to foreign countries. The Republican speakers and Editors told you to the contrary. Which was right?

Joseph Fritts and family have moved from South Ripley to Mayfield.

PLENTY ON IT.

More Proof Like This, and it is all from Mayfield People.

The proof of the pudding is in the eating of it. If any city or town in the Union has sufficient proof on the following subject it is Mayfield. Genius merit is finding its reward in the hearty endorsement of local citizens. When people right here at home, friends and neighbors of our readers, give a statement like the following for publication it is proof convincing for the skeptical.

Read this testimony:

Mrs. O. Croft of 430 East Second street says—

"We value DOAN's Kidney Pills exceedingly. Their wonderful healing and curative powers are very quickly manifest. I advise others suffering from their back or other kidneys to go to Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, procure DOAN's Kidney Pills and give them a fair trial."

FATAL EXPLOSION.

An Old Second-Hand Boiler Used in a Chicago Laundry Establishment Lets Go.

EIGHT PERSONS INSTANTLY KILLED.

Twenty-Nine People Were More or Less Injured and Several Are Believed to Be in the Ruins.

A Clash Between the Police and Fire Department at the Who Should Seize for Bootleg Proprietor Arrested.

Chicago, March 12.—By the explosion of a boiler in the Doremus laundry, 458 West Madison street, eight persons were instantly killed, 23 were injured and several are missing.

The cause of the explosion has not been determined with accuracy as yet, and it will probably require an official investigation to settle the matter. It is known that the boiler was old, a second-hand affair, and there is no record in the office of the boiler factor that it had ever been having been made within the last year. Pending the verdict of the coroner's jury, A. L. Doremus, the proprietor of the laundry, is held in custody by the police. It is the intention of the authorities to institute criminal proceedings against him should the facts brought out at the inquest warrant such action.

The Number of Employees.

Reports of the number of dead in the ruins ran all the way from six to 20. It is known that 30 employees of the laundry had entered the place before the explosion occurred, because the automatic time-keeper found in the laundry showed that 30 registered arrivals. Two or three were entering at the moment of the explosion, making an approximate total of 40 employees in and around the building. The list of injured includes, however, several persons residing in the adjoining buildings.

The most consecutive受伤者由 the police, who were at the scene of the work was entirely abandoned.

Firemen and Police Diagnose.

The cause of the cessation of the search was a dispute between the firemen and police as to who was responsible for the recovery of any bodies which might be concealed beneath the debris. The firemen said they had performed their duty and, gathering up their hose, they retired from the scene. The police said it was not their work to search for bodies, and nobody else volunteered to do the work. The trouble was brought to the attention of Police Inspector John D. Shee, whose district the accident occurred, and he held that the police properly belonged to the fire department.

Both the police and firemen remained firm and refused to continue the search for bodies. While the firemen maintained that all the bodies had been recovered, the police asserted that this fact had not been established. Police Agent O'Hearn said that the general understanding was that there were more bodies in the ruins.

Pulling Down the Walls.

While the firemen and police were arguing and explaining their respective sides in the matter, the city building department stepped in. Building Commissioner Kilday sent a deputy to the scene of the catastrophe, and a notice was sent to Jackson Brothers, agents for the property, to immediately begin the work of pulling down the walls and clearing away the debris. Jackson Brothers gave their word to comply with the order; their failure to do so resulted in the building department performing the task. The real estate firm soon had a number of wreckers at the ruins and the work of pulling down the walls was immediately begun. The operation made it impossible to continue the search for bodies, but the work may be continued Tuesday.

EX PRESIDENT HARRISON.

His Condition Is Slightly Worse, But His Physicians Hope for His Ultimate Recovery.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 12.—Dr. Henry Jameson, who is in constant attendance upon the patient and with Dr. Evan Hadley has alternated in a close watch for the slightest sign of improvement or relapse.

At 7:30 o'clock Monday night Dr. Jameson issued the following statement: "Harrison got through the night in excellent shape and in a manner gratifying to myself and Mrs. Hadley and Dorey. He held his own splendidly until 10 o'clock Thursday morning when a slight change for the worse was observed. The inflammation of the left lung and in his chest then began to come a great deal of trouble and produced a state of nervousness and restlessness which caused him much discomfort.

No Great Cause for Alarm.

"I find no great cause for alarm in the condition of Gen. Harrison and attribute the change Monday to the fact that he has been sleeping almost one day longer. At this hour he is more restless. His temperature is now 102° 45'; his pulse 95; his respiration 35. As to the definite time when a crisis will occur I can not say. In dealing with pneumonia and kindred forms of illness, a critical condition is hard to reckon on. In 48 hours there will be a change of some sort, either for the worse or the better.

"With the other physicians I am very hopeful at this time of Gen. Harrison's ultimate recovery. The chief difficulty is that there is an immediate extension of the inflammatory process in the left lung. Unless there should be an extension of that inflammation involving the pleurae and some of the lobules of the lung, a critical condition is hard to reckon on. In 48 hours there will be a change of some sort, either for the worse or the better.

The Patient Is Conscious.

At midnight Dr. Jameson left the hospital and did not return until nearly three hours with his patient. The other two physicians had been present and effort was directed to relieving the congestion in the left lung. Dr. Jameson gave out the following statement:

"Gen. Harrison's condition is not changed from what it was early in the evening. His strength is keeping up well and his pulse is strong. "The inflammation of his lung has not spread any and there is no danger to be apprehended unless the inflammation extends."

"There is about a crisis in Gen. Harrison's condition is about. There will be no crisis. He will either gradually grow better or he will grow worse gradually and will in the same way grow weaker. He is perfectly conscious at this hour and is resting easily."

ARMISTICE ASKED FOR.

Gen. Butler Desires to Confer With Dewey and Mr. Stern-Bauer Short of Ammunition.

Lorenzo Marques, March 12.—Gen. Botha is willing to end the war. He asked an armistice in order to communicate with Gen. Dewey and Mr. Stern-Bauer, who are here, and suggested that Gen. Botha will surrender. The Boers have no artillery or ammunition and are burying all their guns. The railway from Lorenzo Marques to Pretoria is practically clear of Boers.

Pretoria, March 12.—The result of the negotiations between Lord Kitchener and Gen. Botha is anxiously awaited.

The presence of Sir Alfred Milner in Pretoria to consult with Lord Kitchener is expected to hasten the change from the military to the civil administration.

London, March 12.—The Times has received the following from Bloemfontein:

"Boers who have surrendered here say that Mr. Stein, in a recent speech at Philippolis, admitted that there was no chance of regaining the country."

MOB AFTER HIM.

Borne Williams, Who Murdered His Wife at Brunswick, Mo., Will Be Lynched If Caught.

He is wanted if caught.

Brunswick, Mo., March 12.—Horace Williams, a white man, charged with the murder of his wife, will be lynched if he is caught by a mob of 300 men which is scouring this section of the state for him. At present his escape Williams was in the custody of a deputy sheriff here who, when he saw that he could not protect his prisoner, turned him loose with the words: "Run, or they will burn you."
